❖ CALL TO WORSHIP Liturgist, David Jimerson
God be praised for turning seasons—blustery winter with its storms and rains, the fragile winds of spring, and warm, growing, grazing summer.
Now two-faced autumn begins with burnished days and drizzling days.

Autumn—September crimson, October orange and cat-black, November gray.
Autumn—golden leaves, ripe red apples, school bells, football cheers, pumpkin pie, cider, mince, the smell of cold and smoke, the touch of homecoming.

Autumn—when between the boughs of leaf-lost trees squirrels race winter. We gather in the harvest of our lives, the plenty, the good, and rake up the scatterings—dried hopes and fallen dreams.
And we offer all the end-year bounty and gleanings before the Almighty God.

❖ HYMN OF PRAISE How Clear Is Our Vocation, Lord No. 419

❖ PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Author of life, we humbly confess that too often we fall short of your intentions for us and of our expectations of ourselves. We would touch the world with goodness, but often we withdraw in anxiety and self-concern. We would live with integrity and stand for truth, but we are torn with uncertainties. We would warm the lives of others with our love, but we hesitate, wondering if they will love us in return. We would go about our daily tasks with confidence and joy, but find ourselves struggling with self-doubt. We need your presence, O God, if we are to be what we could be and want to be. Let our worship heal us, renew us, strengthen us, that we may go out in joy and be led forth in peace. Amen.

In and of ourselves, O God, we are fragmented, and our gifts are only partial. But in you we become whole, and our giving is whole. Receive now the love and worship and gifts that reflect who we have come to be—or who we have yet to become—in your kingdom. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
